

Blood in your poo or looser poo? If it's been six weeks or more, see your GP.

These can be signs of bowel cancer for both men and women. But the good news is, 9 out of 10 people survive bowel cancer when it's found and treated early. It may be nothing, but it's important to get checked. Listen to your body and talk to your GP.
becancerawareni.info

Dr Joanna McCreery
GP

